

The Board Certified Radiologists of Vision Imaging

When it comes to your health, everyone wants to know that they are receiving the best care possible. At Vision Imaging we know that! So, we've brought some of the best trained radiologists to Kingston so you won't have to travel to the big city medical centers for the same care.

Our board-certified radiologists have studied and practiced medicine at world-renowned centers like the Mayo Clinic, Cornell, Tulane, Baylor, Temple, Hahnemann, Jefferson, Rutgers, Johns Hopkins and Columbia to name a few. And our outstanding credentials are matched by the state-of-the-art diagnostic equipment and well-trained technologists who take care of our patients every day. There truly is a difference in diagnostic imaging and Vision Imaging provides compassion, service and excellence.
